

New Garden Room to Listed Cottage

CONSERVATION

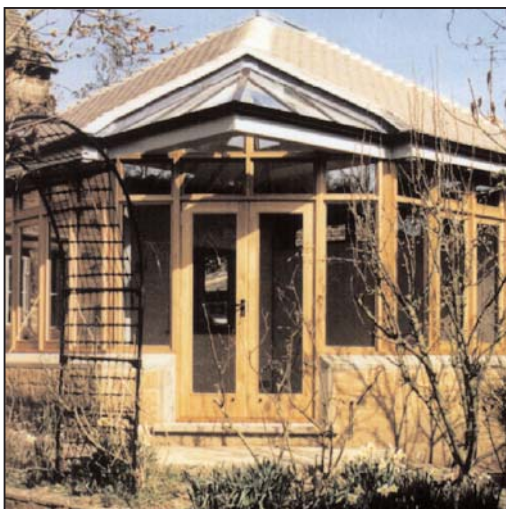

RESIDENTIAL

EDUCATION/COMMUNITY

HOTEL/LEISURE

HEALTHCARE

COMMERCIAL

A traditionally constructed, yet contemporary style, garden room extension to a Grade II listed house. The client required a light and airy room which links the house to the garden, but specifically rejected the idea of a conservatory. The room has a lightweight glazed link to the house giving the appearance of being detached. Natural materials of stone and oak blend well with the surroundings and results in a mellow and sympathetic extension in a sensitive setting.